ARBITRATION AWARD

Devas shareholders seize $55-m govt assets

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, June 2

DEVAS SHAREHOLDERS HAVE seized $55 million in Indian government assets in Canada to enforce an arbitration award they won against cancellation of a satellite deal, their counsel said in a statement.

A Canadian court had granted Devas shareholders the right to seize assets belonging to the Airports Authority of India (AAI) in Montreal to enforce the $111-million award by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law.

Matthew D McGill, counsel to Devas shareholders, said: "The announcement of $55 million under seizure by Devas shareholders is confirmation of what we have said from the beginning: Devas will be relentless in its efforts to enforce our lawful international arbitration awards in courts around the world."

LEGAL TANGLE

■ A Canadian court had granted Devas shareholders the right to seize assets belonging to AAI in Montreal

■ The seizure of assets was made to enforce an arbitration award they won against cancellation of a satellite deal allowed Devas shareholders to seize an apartment that houses the Indian deputy Chief of Mission, valued at ₹3.8 million, for enforcement of the award.

The $55 million under seizure order is the result of enforcement proceedings undertaken in Canada targeting monies that flow through IATA from AAI and Air India. This includes the normal and orderly collection of overflight fees, landing fees and ticketing fees.

The Tata Group took over Air India earlier this year. To evade further seizure orders, AAI has taken unprecedented steps to withdraw from the international system for collection of over-flight and landing fees through the IATA.

"Consequently, the Court of Appeal of Quebec reinstated the multimillion seizure order pending the appeal process," the statement added.
